To: Judge of New Mexico,

Your honor, I am Johnny Black's adoptive mother, my name is Lulu (Black) Good. I live in Noorvik, Alaska.

I adopted Johnny when my sister was going through a hard time &

Raised him best I could. He is a good man all in all! Growing up he was always helping elders or anyone who needed any kind of assistance. I didn't have to tell him twice to do stuff, we had taught him.

His school years were okay he did very well in sports. His teachers would comment on his helpfulness through out the year. He also learned the "Native way" of living, hunting, trapping and such.

Johnny is a loving, caring, intelligent young man, whose town was too small really to do anything, except ~~to~~ to leave and ^{to} all the culture shock I think.

I didn't prepare him for that.

I am apologizing for his behavior and what he has caused in your country.

I close with good thoughts and prayers to you and your court system.

Sincerely,

Lulu M. Good
